EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Robert Wieland (Reg. No. 40,225) on November 14, 2004.

The following changes to the drawings have been approved by the examiner and agreed upon by applicant: Figs. 6-10 have been labeled "Prior Art" in RED as indicated in the attached drawings. In order to avoid abandonment of the application, applicant must make these above agreed upon drawing changes.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The present invention is directed to a video signal reproducing apparatus for reproducing a video signal including a main video signal of progressive-scan video and a sub-video signal changing asynchronously with the main video signal. Independent claim 1 identifies the uniquely distinct features "a sub-video adder for adding the sub-video signal to an output of said interlace-scan converter in synchronism with a boundary of frames of the main video signal in the output of said interlace-scan-video converter" and "a progressive-scan video converter converting the output of said sub-video adder into a progressive-scan video signal in synchronism with the boundary of frames of the main video signal". The closest prior art, Kinebuchi et al (US 6,512,881 B1) and Oshima et al (US 2003/0108341 A1) disclose conventional video disk player, either singularly or in combination, fail to anticipate or render the above underlined limitations obvious..

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
